

Do not allow any businesses or corporations to have the right to resume the kind of telephone harassment that many of us were subjected to prior to the enactment of the law protecting us from telephone solicitation. Free enterprise is a good thing but not at the cost of my privacy.